THE STATE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

FIRST DAY.

At 12 o'clock. His Honor Judge Settle of the Supreme Court called the Convention to order. He said:

At the request of Chief Justice Pearson, Associate Justices Reade, Rodman and Bynum, and Secretary of State, Dr. Howerton, the only persons, except myself, authorized by the act calling a Convention of the people of North Carolina to call the delegates to order, and to administer the oath prescribed by the act, I am here to-day to perform the duties prescribed by the Act.

I will now call the courties of the State in their alphabetical order, and the delegates elect will, when their counties are called, present their certificates of election. In calling the roll, administuing the oath and superintending the subscribing of same, as each delegate is required to do, I shall need some assistance. I therefore request the delegate from Person, Anson, Granville and New Hanover, Messrs. Cunningham, Bennett, Young and French, to take their seats at the clerk's desk, and render me such assistance as I may

The roll of counties was then called, and the oath of office administered to the first five, but at the suggestion of Mr. Tourgee, the oath was dispensed with until it was ascertained that a quorum was present. This fact being ascertained by the call, the administering of the oath was continued.

On the call of the second squad of five Mr. Tourgee offered the following protest:

We, the undersigned delegates elected to the Convention, protest against the validity of the oath prescribed in the acts of the General Assembly calling this Convention, as being beyond the power of any Legislature to impose, contrary to the political history, usages and precedents heretofore acknowledged and acted upon for forty years by subversive of the rights, and derogative to the dignity of the people of the State. Signed by Tourgee, Bryan, Davis, French, Albertson, McCabe, Munden, Jordan, Mabson, S. H. Manning, Thorne, Nowell, Dickson, Massey, Wilcox, Carey, Woodfin, B F Jones, Crosby, Wheeler, Justice, Bullock, Dockery, Hinnant.

Mr. Turner objected to the protest as being out of time and therefore out of order.

Mr. Tourgee could not see how it was out of time when the oath of office was being administered at this time. Judge Settle said he had no control of the matter and would admit the protest to be entered on the journal. The roll proceeded harmoniously until the call for the county of Robeson, when two sets of delegates made their appearance at the stavd. Judge Settle stated the Convention was probably aware of the difficulty pending in regard to the Robeson County delegates and that he would in the interest of the peace, harmony and the best interests of the Convention, consider the claims of the contestants after the organization. Mr. Turner objected to such proceeding and asked why should a delegate holding the certificate of the sheriff of his county be passed over.

Judge Settle said that he had plainly stated his reason, that he had no prejudice in the matter but adopted this course simply in the interests of peace and harmony; that this was his decision, and ordered the Clerk to proceed with the call.

Mr. Turner still objected and insisted that it was the duty of the Justice to swear them in now.

Judge Settle-"I have decided otherwise and the Clerk will proceed with the cail."

Mr. Turner-"I appeal from the decision." Judge Settle-"there is no one to appeal to." Mr. Manning of Chatham, said that his honor (Judge Settle) having decided that he would disregard trivial irregularities in the certificates, and his party having received that statement in good faith did not object to the certificates of several who had been sworn in, which they would have done had they known that his Honor intended to vary from his decision.

Mr. Clingman desired to know i decision would be rendered before the organization of the Convention. Judge Settle said he would decide the question before he left the chair and before the organization of the Convention.

Mr. Bennett gave notice that he would object to certain delegates when the certificates were presen-

The roll was proceeded with and at the close, Judge Settle rendered his decision that the regularly elected members. Messrs. McEachin and Sinclair were entitled to their

Objection to the office-holders were then withdrawn and all sworn

Judge Settle said the next business in order was the election of a President of the Convention. Mr. Albertson nominated Hon. C H. Dockerv of Richmond. Mr. Reid nominated Hon. Edward Ransom of Tyrell.

The first ballot resulted as follows: For Hon. E. Ransom.-Messrs, Alison, Allman, Anderson of Clay, Anderson of Madison, Avery, Bennett, Bingham, Buvn, Byrd, Carter, Clingman, Coleman, Cooper, Cowell, Cunningham, Dobson, Durham, TRUE PLUCK .- Wednesday morning last at 3:30 J. Otes Sitllman, the indefatigable sewing machine agent left the Yarboro House with carpetbag in hand to take the freight train for Durham. On reaching the depot a flock of goats and the crowing of neighboring cocks were all to be seen or heard to break the deathlike stillness of the coming morn. With quiet step he approached the platform and commenced roaming around among the cotton bales. He had not advanced far, when up sprang the faithful night watch with pistol cocked and the muzzle within six inches of his face.

"Halt! One step more and off comes your scull cap, you infernal thief " "Don't shoot-hold my christian friend, heed me, I am no thief, but an honest sewing machine agent waiting to take the train for Durham."

"The devil you say-I took you for one of those infernal cotton thieves who have been prowling around for the past week, and in one more second you would have been singing Pealms in Heaven; now we will shake hands, and go over and wake up Jim Henderson and take something to drink on better acquain-

"Thank you kindly, stranger, ger, I never drink-but I admire your watchfulness and faithful discharge of duty-but will hereafter give you the countersign and let you discharge that pistol at some one more worthy of its contents. Now, how long before the train for Durham ?"

"Oh, biess my Lord," says the watchman, the schedule has been changed and she went up at 10 last night, and if you see Durham to-day you will have to walk and I know you wont try that project this hot

"Yes, but I will," says Stillman, "it is only twenty-eight miles, and I would walk forty-eight rather than break an important engagement," and with carpet-bag in hand off he put whistling "Tramp, tramp, the boys are marching." At 7.30 he reached Cary, eight miles distant; there he took breakfast and set out to walk the remaining twenty miles, which he did, arriving at Durham in the afternoon at 2.30; took dinner, a hot cup of coffee-transacts his business and said if a like engagment called him back to Raleigh and no other way presents itself he would walk back before bed time!

Bully for Stillman-long may he live and prosper! We would say to the ladies he is a single man and good

To the young men, when slight obstacles present themselves recollect Stillman and push ahead-determination will conquer.

ELECTION OF MAJ. B. C. MANLY MAYOR. - At a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen last evening Maj. Basil C. Manly was elected Mayor of the city to fill the unexpired term of the late Mayor J. H. Separk. In the selection of Maj. Manly to the high and responsible office of chief executive of the city, the Board in our opinion has acted well and wisely, besides carrying out the wishes of two-thirds of the constituency they represent. Mayor Manly will at once enter upon his official duties. The position of City Marshall, which he filled so acceptably to the people and the Board devolves upon Capt. J. W. Lee, until an election for the same can be

We were pleased to meet at the Yarboro House last evening Capt. W. H. Kitchen of Halifax, our gallant standard bearer in the 2nd Congressional District, against C. R. Thomas, in the campaign of '72. His heroic fight in that hopeless cause will long be remembered in the hearts of the people. In the late canvass Capt. Kitchen again buckled on his armour and went forth to battle for the right. In Martin county where he is well and favorably known, he stumped every township, and through his energy and the popularity of that good man Rev. C. B. Hassell,old Martin, heretofore republicau rolled up a handsome Demo

THE OPENING DAY.

Hard Work and Plenty of It-a Full Supply of Hands to do it-How Vain are all Things Here Below-Scenes at the Capitol

-the Opening-Exciting times in the House-the Vote for President.

The long looked for and anxiously expected 6th of September dawned most auspiciously upon the country yesterday morning. At an early hour the army of office hunters were at their post, the Revenue officials (every one in the State,) any quantity of Postmasters from every section, with a number of other "props" aggregating in the whole almost five hundred, were as busy as bees in a tar bucket. They had promised the negroes back at home that the Convention should organize with eight Republican majority, but two would answer if they could only get that .-To this end they bent all their energies and used all the devilment at their command to secure it. Long before the hour of 12 o'clock, the rotunda, halls and corridors of the Capitol were a solid mass of human beings.

So complete was the jam at the door of the House that it was really dangerous to attempt a passage. When the doors were opened the rush for galleries, and lobbies was frantic in the extreme. In a few moments every inch of space above and below was occupied.

Precisely at 12 o'clock, Judge Settle of the Supreme Court ascended the Speaker's Chair and called the Convention to order. As the roll of counties was called a death like stillness pervaded the densely packed hall, every ear stretching eagerly forward to ascertain what member was missing, but strange to say every man answered to his name, not a single delegate of the 119 being ab-Bent.

The only discussion that took place during the day was a slight skirmish between the Chair and Messrs. Manning, of Chatham, Clingman, and Turner in regard to the seating of the Robeson county delegates, a full report of which appears in our proceedings elsewhere. There was some little feeling exhibited at first, but peace and harmony prevailed and everything passed off smootly and in order.

While the voting was going on the House was remarkably quiet, owing doubtless to the fact that no one saw anything to applaud over. The rads only evinced a disposition to be 'fussy" in the early part of the session, and as the Democrats had the "innings" later in the session, but little noise was made.

The rads seemed to take their defeat very hard while the democrats enjoyed their victory with that dignity that becomes a great party of great

For the result see proceedings.

The Hertford delegate drew the first applause of the session. As he "waddled" that 380 lbs. avordupois down the aisle, to hand in his certificate, the boys in the gallery first opened with a general "titter," next an audible te-he, then a "giggle" which ended in rapturous applause.

The delegates were sworn in by squads of four and five; one squad was composed of Tourgee, O'Hara, the colored-lawyer, Goodwinand Holton. Now, what kind a kettle of fish would you call that?

In vain did the rads look around the circle yesterday for that boasted eight majority by which they intended to organize the Convention. The addition of five hundred "props" could not make the vote higher than 58 for their best man, and a sicklier looking set we have not seen since the day after the 1874 Wake election.

Thirteen different newspapers were represented at the Reporter's desk during the session of the Convention, viz: Daily News, Sentinel, Era and Illustrated Age, Raleigh; Journal, Wilmington; Observer, Charlotte; Herald, New York; Southerner, Tarboro; Piedmont Press, Hickory; Transcript, Toisnot; Landmark, Statesville; Union Republican, Winston, and New North State, Freensboro.

Peace and harmony prevailed broughout the session, but little wrangling and only one Buncombe speech; very good for a start.

MARRIAGE. - At Beaufort on the 2nd inst., Mr. W. A. Porter, of Raleigh, and Miss Sarah Hall, of Greensboro, S. C. The happy bridegroom has made many friends during his sojourn at the sea-coast, the proof thereof having been manifested by his acceptance of his heart and hand by the estimable lady in question .--We congratulate both of them.

Also, in Richmond, Va., on the 26th ult., John W. Pickard, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Mildred S. Legrand of Richmone, Va.

THE FIRST BALE.—The first bale of Wake county cotton was brought to this city yesterday by Mr. F. E. Weathers and sold to Messrs. Norris & Myatt at 13%. This is about one week later than last year for the "first bale."

PERSONAL.-We are glad to welcome to our city Dr. D. E. Everitt of Newbern who comes to cast his lot with us. We have known Dr. E. personally for years and we can say, separate and apart from his high reputation as a dentist, that he is a polished and cultivated gentleman, one who will prove quite a valuable accession to the society of Raleigh.

The following notice of Dr. E. we clip from his home paper the Newbern Journal of Commerce:

We regret to announce that our removed his dental rooms from this city to Raleigh, where he associates himself with Dr. B. F. Arrington. During a residence in Newbern of two years, Dr. Everitt made many warm friends, and secured a reputa-tion in his profession excelled by somest in the State: his impliments of the most improved kind, and handled with a skill and gentleness which won him a large and constantly increasing patronage. Ral-eigh offered a wider field, however, and the doctor reluctantly left Newbern to accept the inducemements held out to him there. The good wishes of many friends here follow him, with hopes for success in his

MORE NEW COTTON.-Mr. J. H. Tomlinson, of Johnston county, brought into the city last evening two bales of new cotton, which will be put on the market to-day. The cotton will class as middling. Mr. Tomlinson picked the above from ten acres of ground, which is an extraordinary turnout so early in the sea-

SALE POSTPONED.—The sale of the City property, advertised by J. B. Batchelor Commissioner, to have taken place yesterday, has been postponed until to-day Tuesday 7th, at 11 o'clock at the Court House. The property alluded to is the premises formerly occupied by Mrs. L. D. Henry, well located and valuable.

Chapel Hill.

The people of North Carolina are reloicing with exceeding great joy at the cheerful prospects now opening before Chapel Hill, and we unite with the press of our sister State in expressing our own satisfaction at the promised results. Radicalism found t a noble institution, rich library, and still richer in its traditions; but it laid its polluting hand on the noble school, and its halls were immediately deserted. Nor was this all: its sacred treasures of literature were given over to decay and the rains were at last allowed to beat in where the light should not have been allowed to penetrate too broadly. With the recovery of power by the true people of the State, the question of restoring Chapel Hill was at once agitated, and as the result it now goes in operation with a corps of able professors and with abundant promise of many students. As it again enters upon its serene course of public usefulness, we venture to deliver a brief admonition, which we can condense in few words Let our friends of "The Hill," determine from the start that they will avoid the bane of American Colleges, which is to seek mere popularaty and to boast the number of their matricof their work. There is a general temptation to commit this serious fortunately it does not exist in the case of Chapel Hill. The State of North Carolina will rally to its support with generous unanimity, and s far as we can judge from this distance, its new career may be made as bright as its past .- Norfolk Land-

Dr. Glenn, of Colusa county, California, owns a ranch containing nearly 45,000 acres, having a frontage of eighteen miles on the Sacramento nver, and extending back five miles Upon the property are 140 miles of fencing. Two tenants cultivate 10,expects to raise 180,000 bushels of wheat and barley this season.

The English now make about ten thousand tons of Bessemer steel per week, and the Americans about onethird that quantity. In the forme country one thousand tons per week has been made in one pair of converters: and this speed, once so wonderful, has been exceeded in America. At the meeting of the negro convention in Richmond, the scenery at the back of the stage represented a kitchen. Some of the delegates regarded this as an intended insult, and angrily compelled a change. A HINT TO THE LEAN .- The cause of lean ness, when there is no positive disease which produces it, is an imperfect assimi-istion of the flood. The weight of the body undoubtedly bears a marked relation to, Istion of the flood. The weight of the body undoubtedly bears a marked relation to, and increases proportionately to itsheight, when it is properly nourished with flesh making blood. Hence, when we see a tall person with "slab" sides and holitow cheeks, we have a right to infer that his blood is thin and watery and his constitution delicate. costetter's Stomach Bitters is peculiarly serviceable to thin, delicate people, since it strengthens the diges ive and assimilative organs, and is consequently a powerful auxiliary in the blood madufacturing processes, which hin a stete of health ought to be, and are thoroughly performed. An increase of muscle, as well as fat, is a result of usning this sovereign anti-dyspeptic, appetizing and generally corrective cordial.

WE are pleased to hear that Gov. Brogden has not made the offensive appointments of commissioners for the W. N. C. R. R., as foreshadowed in our article of last week. Whether influenced by that article, or whether holding the appointments in reserve for convenient use in the organization of the Convention, we are unable to say. Better take the advice, Governor, of W. A. Smith, both for your own sake, as well as for the good of the State. You will pay a heavy price, and incur a ruinous penalty if you let those appointments pass out of your hands to buy up men incompetent to the duties, and who will bring ruin upon you as well as upon the work. But it is for the latter alone that we are concerned.

THE CONVENTION.

Possibly we may be able to give our readers some definite information of the organization of the Convention in this issue. We write in advance of the hour of assembling. To the honor of the Democrats, they are all here punctually to the hour, fully sensible of the vast responsibility resting upon them. The Republicans are as punctual. The anxiety as to the movements of the Independent members, Messrs. Ransom and Wilcox is intense. These gentlemen have not been permitted a solitary moment since they put foot in Raleigh, the Republicans almost monopolizing them. As yet the position of both is as much undetermined as ever, only to be developed when the Convention is called to order. The Democrats have kept themselves unstained by improper advances to these gentlemen. If they are to act with us, it will be under their own volition and the influence of sound argument. We are afraid the Republicans cannot say as much. The magazine of government resources is at their disposal, and they will not be nice in their offers. Propositions to one supposed to be doubtful have come to light, and it is reasonable to believe that the same inducements were held out to those known to be so.

We will not venture to foreshadow by prediction what a few nours ow by prediction what a few nours as it is. It was their purpose, had may definitely determine, and there—they elected a majority of the dele-

GEN. CLINGMAN'S ADDRESS.

The address delivered at the commencement of the University of the South, at Sewannee, Tenn., on the 5th of August, is attracting more attention than usually attaches to: productions regarded as ephemera in their character. The subject, "Religious and Popular Orators" is one well calculated to draw out from the rich stores of reminiscence of one whose personal acquaintance with many of the actors was close and intimate, and with all of them, accurate, most charming and graphic deliniations both of the individuals themselves, and of their characteristics. General Clingman has given to the public a most delightful and instructive entertainment, and North Carolina thanks him that he has added another leaf to her literary laurels.

We present below the handsome and unsought tribute to the author from one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Judge Bradley, who, though knowing nothing of General Clingman personally, rendered this handsome and valuable testimony of his estimate of his worth :

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31st. 1875. HON. T. L. CLINGMAN-Sir :- Alow me to thank you for the beautiful and instructive oration delivered by you at Sewannee, 5th inst., and sent to me by yourself, or some other per-son by the mail. The manner in which you at once enter upon your subject and pursue it steadily to the end, with apt illustration, and reference to the masters of American eloquence gives the oration a charm and endures it with a force which at once interest, instruct, and impress the mind. Though execrably printed my boys-one a student at law, the other an under graduate at Collegehave with me, greatly enjoyed and enefitted by its perusal,

With much respect, though not personally acquainted, I subscribe Your obedient servant.

JOSEPH P. BRADLEY, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, U. S. P. S. I have seen with regret a no tice of the death of your fellow North Carolinian Gov. Graham, whom heard with admiration in our Court about two years ago-for the only time-though I was for many years of the old time, well acquainted both with him and yourself by reputation. J. P. B.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CON-STITUTIONAL CONVENTION. We clip the following from the

New York Herald of the 3rd. We cannot accurately give the majority for the Republicans on the there are but fire Democrats outside of information, as yet imperfectly anxieties have drawn them hither. [ority at more than 7,000. The Herald's correspondent puts it at 14,-036, which is from Republican sources, and no more complete than our's.

But the Herald is mistaken in its inferences. The Democratic party is not weakened by any gains from it by the Republicans. They brought out every voter, and there is no increase that cannot be accounted for. It was either a natural increase, or it was an increase by fraudulent voting, very demonstrable in several large counties. The Democratic deficency is from causes previously accounted for. Its strength is held in reserve, unimpaired, for future service. If the Convention sits as a Democratic body, its work will be so acceptable, dissipating all the fears that hung around its action, that it will bring out a heavy majority for the ratification of the Constitution it may present. On the other hand if it sits as a Republican body (?) and their contemplated measures are carried out, it will be repudiated by a majority which will strength of the parties. The result of the election for Convention has no possible bearing uppon the Presidential election. Our people have hardly given that question a thought. They will act upon the presentation of the candidate and the platform. The Republicans have organized in time for an issue upon which the existence of their party depends. The Demoerats of North Carolina, not ambitious to lead, will follow in the wake of States better entitled to give be unmistakable evidence of the

tone to the contest: THE NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITU-

TIONAL CONVENTION. Our despatch from Raleigh sheds light on the politics of "the Old North State," and shows that the tidal wave of last year has receded and sunk to low ebb. It is doubtful which party will control the Convention, especially since Judge Settle has decided, in the case of two republican contest ants, that he has no jurisdiction. This remands the decision of their claim to seats to the Convention itself, and will probably enable the democrats to exclude them and establish a slen der majority. Judge Settle, who is a republican, did not intend this result. ut he is an honest magistrate and the law left him no choice. significant part of our correspondent's despatch is his statement that the aggregate vote for the republican can-didaces exceeds that cast for the democratic candidates by 14,036. This indicates that the work of the Convention will be rejected by the people of the State. The republicans we posed to the calling of a Convention, being satisfied with the constitution gates, to adjourn the Convention sine die as soon as it was organized. They will accomplish the same object in more roundabout way by voting down the new constitution when it is submitted to the people, which they can easily do if they retain their pres-ent strength, as the whole people will vote upon it in mass and not in separate districts, as they did in the choice of delegates. The falling off in the democratic vote of North Carolina since last year is remarkable. Last year the democrats elected their State ticket by a majority of 11,780. this year they are in a popular minority of 14,036, making a change of 25,816 in favor of the republicans in one year. If this should rove to be a specimen of the ebb of the tidal wave" throughout the country the democratic "Jordan will be a hard road to travel" in the approaching elections. The vote of North Carolina is not an unimportant factor in our polities. In 1872 the unexpected republican victory in August was the first decisive symptom of Mr. Greeley's signal defeat, Up to that time his supporters were auguine and exultant, but the North Carolina election was a dripping wet blanket, and his prospects rapidly declined after that disappointment. It was followed by a defeat in Maine. and the Greeley canvass never held up its head afterward. Whether the result in North Carolina this year is equally ominous cannot yet be mined. A loss of 25,000 in that State is not favorable to democratic hopes.

A NEW PROPELLER.-The New Haven Palladium says that a mechanic in that city has invented a new method of propelling boats, by which he can obtain a speed of five miles an hour without any "wash" from the propeller. The boat has two keels parallel to each other, and between them an air-tight box, built in the bottom of the boat, into which air is forced by means of a small steam engine. The compressed air is conveyed to the top of the water under he boat, and allowed to escape on the surface of the water, the resistance it meets being relied upon for the propulsion of the boat. The two keels are intended to keep the compressed air from being distributed too great a surface. The Palladium says that several satisfactory trips have been made in the boot (probably without load), and that the invention can probably be used to a 1vantage on canals.

In the course of a Baptist doctrinal sermon delivered in Greensboro, Ga., the reverend colored preacher illustrated the difference between the Baptist and Methodist churches by relating an anecdote. "Some years ago a man 'fessed 'ligion and to jine de Baptist church. He gin in his 'sperience and was 'jected. went right straight and 'jined do Mefodis'. Some time after dat a brudder Baptis' asked him: 'How dis' We wouldn't hab you, and de Mefo-dis' dun tuk you.' 'Oh,' says he, 'you old Baptis' want to make me pay cash down, but de Mefodis' gin me six munths' credick.' Worse and worse! If the President does not send more troops to Georgia right away there is no telling what the Kuklux may not do. The jury in the case of Cordy Harris, accused of attempting to incite an insurrection among the negroes, has brought in a verdict of not guilty, and the negro has been released. Three others, indicted for the same offense, are to be tried next week, but all the rest have been discharged .popular vote. From our own sources | Such flendish brutality as this can only be met by the prompt and stern action of the Federal Government, for what chance is there for a third term if such things can be? liams should not have been allowed to go. He would never have permitted these atrocities.

The sugar and molasses crop of Louisiana last year was one of the largest on record, 116,867 hogsheads of sugar and 11,516,828 gallons of molasses, and this year's crop is expected to exceed it. A similar report is made of this year's rice crop, which is estimated at 104,963 barrels, and cotton will probably do as well Louisiana, after some severe lessons has found that blind partisan polities does not pay. It has been some time now since the people there made up their minds to devote their chief time to honest labor, and this is one of the good results. Louisiana form erly was an unfailing source of news of riot, bloodshed and murderbut now she fortunately furnished only items like the above. Happy, indeed is the county that has no history. I was acquainted once with a gallant soldier who assured me that his only method of courage was this: pon the first fire in an engagement ie immediately looke I upon himself as a dead man. He then fought out the remainder of the day perfectly egardless of all manner of danger, as comes a dead man to be. So that all the life or limbs he carried back to his tent he reckoned as clear gain or, as he himself expressed it, "so much out of the fire."-Sterne.

In regard to the suicide of Mr. Ralston, president of the Bank of California, Mr. Cilley, of Chicage, said to a reporter of the Inter-Ocean: remember well talking to Mr. Ralston on the subject of suicide and his remarking that a man ought to care more for his life under any circumstances than to do away with it. In this conversation Mr. Ralston deprecated with especial force the idea of suicide. The Davenport Democrat reports that four young men have found a cave on the Mississippi entered by a flight of rude steps, its broad floor was strewn with ashes, and it contained a skeleton with a big head and a wooden leg fastened by leather straps almost petrified, and bronze buckles. The Democrat supposes that this skeleton is a relic of prehis toric times.

The Consolidated Virginia Mine is sending forth a steady stream of ore worth $2,000 per hour, or more than a dollar every two seconds. The stock of this mine is quoted at $225 a share. Three years ago it was selling for $26. In one week it leaped to 76, and later to nearly $800. Such are the vagaries of Nevada mining

The ripple of political agitation and

discussion, which the publication of my engagement with his excellency Jefferson Davis, produced in this otherwise christian and loyal community, has circled to the furthest boundaries of the Republic. In our invitation to the honorable ex-President, the representative in an eminent degree of the genius and aspirations of the South, we aimed to remove the last impediment to the emancipation of the entire community from the thraldom of sectional prejudices and resentments, and unite our policy and destiny in perfeet amity beneath the folds one banner of a restored and united nationality. We wished to demon-strate in diviner amplitude the sincerity and impartiality of that chiv-alrous and fraternal feeling that inspired the soldiers of Fitzhogh Lee's Paimetto legion and those of Massa-chusetts to bury their enmittes in the lassic soil of Bunker Hill, Ten long years of a bitter acceptance of the irreversible results of civil wa upon the part of the chivalrous South should be sufficient to write a higher law of general amnesty than Presidents can grant, upon the heart and sympathies of every Northern citizen; an amnesty embracing in its broad philanthory the restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities that existed "when Northern and Southern blood mingled in common sacrifice on Mexican soil." Grand Army of this section, by no means embracing in its vindictive remonstrance, the full expression of the soldierly sentiment and honor among us, lost its grandest opports nity to win imperishable fame it belittled the generosity and chivalry of the conqueror, and sunk the majesty of true heroism in the pusil lanimity of personal insult. Had this otherwise noble band united with our City Council as an escort to the venerable ex. President which labored to bring about, the laurels their valor reaped on Lookout mountain, and the ensanguined battle-grounds of Shiloh and Chattanooga, would have paled before this sublime exhibition of their magnanimity and self-heroism. Such a spectacle of the supremacy of soldierly gallantry and courtesy over private resentment would have furnished inspiration to poets, orators and eulogists until the end of time. When we contrast the statesman-like dignity and quiet, christian temper of the ex-President' explanatory letter with the extravagant rant of the Grand Army's remonstrance, signed with so many mental reservations, we tell them. in all earnestness and candor, to go back to the discipline of the camp and there learn their lesson of gallantry and chivalry anew. The present agitation, growing out of my strong reconciliation, peace, and the inevitable development of your immense possibilities, will yet be productive of the happiest results. If it be denied me to grasp, in the hand of the honored ex-President, the hand of every citizen of the South, our association will nevertheless receive the credit for its noble effort in the work of reconciliation.

H. P. KIMBALL. THE INDIANS AND THE ARMY .-It is now stated by wise people who affect to know, that a radical change in the policy of the Government tion has been decided upon by the Administration, and that the President in his forthcoming message wil recomend the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the control of the War Department. Should the change be made (it will require legislation by Congress) army officers will be substituted for the present plundering no doubt be dealt with honestly.

"The origin and particulars of the riot at Clinton on Saturday evening have been variously stated. After hearing all the statements we think the following is about correct:

Siveley struck him over the head was followed by some 20 negroes, whom he ordered back, but about 100 more came rushing on. Some one pistol and the negroes then deman-ded his surrender. He surrendered and gave up his pistol, after which he was shot and his brains knocked out. He was then robbed of his clothing and a finger was cut off in order to get his ring. The infuriated mob found Charle's childress in his yard and shot and killed him in presence of his family.

Frank Thomas, a promising young lawyer, was shot from his horse a mile and half from the scene of the conflict and after falling the savages drove their knives into his body in many places. Jno, Neal was fatally shot in the left lung in the town and Waddy Rice seriously in the hand.
